

FALL 2025 SEMINAR SERIES

Fridays at 11:00 am
Marley 230

10:45 am refreshments

SEPTEMBER

12	EIS Welcome Reception 11:00 am
19	Kyle Benowitz, ASU Molecular and phenotypic insights into the origins of parental care in burying beetles and pillbugs
26	Alison Ravenscraft, Biology University of Texas at Arlington Patterns and implications of environmental symbiont acquisition in herbivorous insects

NOVEMBER

07	Nate Lo, The University of Sydney Sociality and symbiosis: evolutionary insights from cockroach and termite genomes
14	Juan Hurtado, UA Entomology
21	Tobin Hammer, UC, Irvine Henry H. Hagedorn Endowment Speaker
28	Thanksgiving Closure

OCTOBER

03	Judie Bronstein, UA Ecology and Evolutionary Biology Friend and foe: the Manduca sexta-Datura wrightii interaction
10	Nora Besansky, UA Entomology Emerita-Notre Dame How Malaria Vectors Evolve: A Genomic Perspective
17	Lucy Li, UA Entomology IPM program improves public health by reducing environmental and human health risks
24	Michael Riehle, UA Entomology Disrupting malaria parasite development in the mosquito using vitamin B5
31	John Jewett, UA Chemistry & Biochemistry

To attend remotely: link

<https://arizona.zoom.us/j/84673150023>

Password: Insects

Scan to learn about future
EIS events

